POTOMAC STARS

Though they will not appear at Duluth this season, the Northwestbecause of the war, the Potomacs are sean. planning a riproaring club regatta Following are the records up to for July 14. Great interest among last Wednesday of all the Oriffmen the club members is being shown and the river is dotted each evening with husky athletes training for the various events to be held.

Two classes of races will be held; those for canpes and those for shells. In the canoes singles, doubles and fours will contest. H. Rivero and H. Donahue are the most prominent of the single cancelsts.

In the doubles Donahue and A. M. Rivero, Bingley, and Ingram and Hut-terly and H. Rivero are expected to be paired.

Frank Smith, who is fast developing into the best sculler at the Potomac Club, is practically certain to compete in the single sculls, but he will have strong opposition from Hutterly, Ab bott. Duncan, Cornell and Bryan.
Frank Smith and Duncan are expected to compete in the double sculls against Thrall and Mueller, the club's eading pair of oarsmen.

There will also be quads and eights. Among the eights there will be in juniors. Abbott in Charge.

Another regatta will be held later player-in the season and the final winners to Cobb. Det. receive suitable awards will be picked Roth. Cla according to the points they make in the two regattas. On Monday the Potomacs will jour-ney to Marshall Hall for their annual pionic. Club members and their friends will leave on the Charles Macalester early in the day and return
